

Michael Powell should be ashamed. It is ironic that we have "Operation Iraqi Freedom," while we do not listen to the voices raised in our own country. These are not the airwave of Mr. Powell to dispense, these belong to us, and we do NOT need more Clear Channel or Sinclair broadcast etc. ownership. I find this very frightening.